

Programme for SUMCULA IP & Project Management Meeting 2019.10.06 – 2019.10.13

Date	Time	Programme	Place
Sunday 6 th October	Rooms from 14:00 hrs.	Arrival to Pécs, check in to the hotel	Pécs
Monday 7 th October	08:00 – 09:00	Arrival to the University Campus at Szántó Kovács János street 1. Registration. Assembly in the Great Auditorium of the Faculty for Cultural Sciences, Education and Regional Development (KPVK)	Campus of KPVK, Pécs
	09:00 – 09:15	Short introduction and information by the project coordinator, Sándor Némethy (venues, student mentors, programme outline)
	09:15 – 09:30	The Vice Dean of the Faculty for Cultural Sciences, Education and Regional Development, Iván Zádori, presents the interdisciplinary nature, the mission and the development strategy of the Faculty.
	09:30 – 10:30	Sándor Némethy: The concept and structure of ecocycle-based system of sustainable management of cultural landscapes: from applied Earth System Science to nature conservation and conservation of cultural heritage. Environmental and socio-economic implications. International networks – opportunities.
	10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break
	11:00 – 11:30	XX: Phytoremediation
	11:30 – 12:00	Giuseppe Lo Papa: Human Impact on Soils in Cultural Landscapes
	12:00 – 13:30	Lunch at Hotel Laterum. By 13:30 assembly at the Great Auditorium, beginning of the afternoon session.
	13:30 – 14:00	May East: Capacity building and stakeholder management. Conditions of international environmental, economic and social development work. Presentation of successful international development and education projects of Gaia Education.	Campus of KPVK, Pécs
	14:00 – 14:30	Anne Cikankowitz: How to compare industrial techniques to Best Available Techniques
	14:30 – 15:00	László Dinya: Sustainable green economies – global change, environment, renewable energy and demography. The need to change obsolete paradigms.
	15:00 – 15:30	Giuseppe Bazan: The role of plants in the ecological analysis, classification and evaluation of Cultural Landscapes.
	15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break
	16:00 – 16:30	Károly Kutics: The importance of surface freshwater resources: shallow lakes. The formation, hydrology and development of water quality of Lake Balaton.
	16:30 – 17:15	László Szemethy: Biodiversity, sustainable forestry, ecosystem services, habitat and game management.
	17:15 – 17:45	Mária Bajner: Gender issues in environmental management: Women, the silent champions: Time to close the gender gap in biodiversity
17:45 – 18:45	Meeting of students and student-mentors, formation of activity groups for project works. Presentation of assignment subjects. For researchers and teachers: short management meeting.
18:45 –	Free programme. Evening meal: 19:00 – 21:00 at Hotel Laterum
	07:00 – 08:00	Breakfast
	08:30 – 09:00	Gergely Babocsay: Window to Yesterday's Surroundings: Natural Science Collections in the 21 st Century

Tuesday 8 th October	08:00 – 08:30	Martin Hauptvogel: Phytoextraction of toxic elements by short rotation coppice willows grown in a mining sludge	Campus of KPVK, Pécs
	08:30 – 09:00	Christian Siewert: Case study presentation (subject: land use, soil quality, soil organic matter & fertility)
	09:00 – 09:30	Ivo Pavlík: Deterioration of ecosystem services – case study: Ecosystem services and water pollution in Nicaragua.
	09:30 – 10:00	Alice Kozumplíková: Damage to hydrological, water management and ecological-stabilizing function of forests on the example "ML Dačice"
	10:00 – 10:30	Coffee break
	10:30 – 11:00	Zsuzsa Koltay: Trends and Innovations in Museum Learning
	11:00 – 11:30	Zoltán Barócsi: Viticultural landscapes of Hungary – cultivation of world and indigenous grape varieties. Winemaking traditions and technologies
	11:30 – 12:30	Lunch
	12:30 – 13:00	Iván Zádori: Regional and local development solutions for economically and socially disadvantaged islands and island-like territories (due to geographical, economic, infrastructural and social isolation and demographic problems)	Pécs
	13:30 – 17:00	Guided tour in the historic town centre of Pécs. Visiting Cella Septichora, the Cathedral and the Zsolnay Museum.	Pécs town centre
	17:00 – 19:30	Visiting the Littke Champagne Factory. The owner, Stefan Császár presents the facilities and the production: manual production of Hungarian Champagne according to Methode Champenoise. Wine and champagne tasting with snacks.	Littke Champagne Factory
19:30 – open end	Evening meal: own arrangement in the town centre (list of recommended restaurants provided)	Pécs
Wednesday 9 th October	07:00 – 08:00	Breakfast.	Pécs
		2 days excursion to some key locations of the planned Balaton Ecomuseum (as presented in the lecture on Monday, 7 th of October).
	08:00 – 10:30	Travelling to the Fenékpusztá Research Centre of Balaton Upland National Park	Fenékpusztá – Kis Balaton
	10:30 – 12:30	Guided tour in the Kis Balaton (Little Balaton) wetland habitat, one of the largest wetland reconstruction areas and bird sanctuaries in Europe, including special cultural heritage sites. Kis Balaton belongs to Balaton Upland National Park. http://balaton-felvideki.hu/en/small-balaton
	12:30 – 12:45	Travelling to Keszthely
	12:45 – 14:00	Lunch at the Tompos restaurant. Training in wine gastronomy and regional cuisine: wine and food pairing, training in wine evaluation. www.vadaszsarda.hu	Zalacsány
	14:00 – 15:00	Visiting the Balaton Museum. Natural history, archaeology, cultural history. https://www.balatonimuzeum.hu/
	15:00 – 17:00	Visiting the Baroque Festetics Palace in Keszthely. The buildings now house the Helikon Palace Museum complex of several museum units. The palace's construction, started by count Kristóf Festetics in 1745, lasted more than a century. Unique cultural heritage site and historic park. http://helikonkastely.hu/en/	Keszthely
	16:30 – 17:00	Travelling to Hegymagas, Szentgyörgy Hill. The volcanic “witness mountains” from early Pliocene time. The Baroque Tarányi Wine	Hegymagas

		Cellar and the Lengyel Chapel. The viticultural landscape of the Badacsony Wine District.
	17:00 – 18:00	Travelling to Szentantalfa, Zsóka Fogadója Guest House. Check in to the guest house.
	18:00 – 21:00	Travelling to the nearby Gergely Winery (15 min). Short presentation: Sándor Némethy: Introduction to the programme on Thursday, the 10 th of October. Geodiversity, biodiversity, built heritage, agriculture, winemaking traditions and the intangible heritage of the Balaton region: the core of the Balaton Ecomuseum. Organic agriculture in the region. Visiting the winery, wine tasting and dinner.	Szentantalfa
Thursday 10 th October	07:00 – 08:30	Breakfast	Zsóka Guest House
	08:30 – 10:00	Visiting the Hegyestű Geological Interpretive Site. Early Miocene volcanism in the Balaton Region. Geological exhibition: The geodiversity of Transdanubia.	Hegyestű
	10:00 – 12:30	Travelling to the neighbouring village, Zánka (15 min). Visiting Zánka Herb Valley, an exhibition park where more than 500 different kinds of plants are on display; education and research centre. The science and craft of herbs and spices: presentation by the owner Tamás Takács	Zánka
	12:30 – 14:30	Travelling back to Szentantalfa (10 min). Lunch at the Dobosi Winery and guest house. Presentation of crafted food, organic wines and organic agriculture. The Azienda Agricola model.	Szentantalfa
	14:30 – 15:00	Travelling to Salföld Grange (Salföld Major)
	15:00 – 17:00	Visiting Salföld Grange – an education-farm presenting the history and culture of traditional Hungarian agriculture and animal husbandry, including the related trades and crafts. Indigenous Hungarian farm animals.	Salföld
	17:00 – 17:30	Travelling back to Zsóka Guest House
	18:00 – 18:30	Brake
	18:30 – 19:00	Summary of the excursion: questions and answers. Ideas for project / assignment works. Discussion of the programme for the following day: Short presentation of the Tihany peninsula: the oldest (late Miocene) volcano in the Balaton region. The history of the settlement, the role of Benedictine order.	Szentantalfa
	19:00 – 21:00	Evening meal at the guest house
Friday 11 th October	07:00 – 08:15	Breakfast, check out from the hotel	Zsóka Guest House
	08:15 – 08:45	Travelling to the historic village of Tihany, the volcanic peninsula in Lake Balaton.
	08:45 – 11:00	Excursion in Tihany, tour on the educational trail: the oldest volcano in the Balaton region. The outer lake and the inner lake – nature reserve, bird sanctuary, viticultural area and tourism. Short tour in the village, visiting the Benedictine Abbey, the medieval church (founded 1055 AD) & the museum. http://www.tihany.hu/index.php/en/	Tihany
	11:00 – 11:20	Travelling to Balatonfüred, the capital of Lake Balaton.
	11:20 – 12:30	Short sightseeing in Balatonfüred. The Reform Age town centre. The history of the city – built and intangible heritage, recent local development programmes. https://balatonfured.hu/	Balatonfüred
	12:30 – 14:00	Lunch at the Figula Winery and restaurant, Balatonfüred. Short presentation of the Balatonfüred – Csopak Wine District
	14:00 – 14:45	Travelling to Baláca (close to Nemesvámos), Villa Romana. On the way short stop at the geological site: the Permian – Triassic boundary at the railway crossing between Balatonfüred and Csopak.
	14:45 – 17:00	Visiting Villa Romana Balaca - Roman Villa and Garden of Ruins. The Balaton Uplands once was part of the Roman Empire. The Villa	Baláca

		Romana Balaca was the home and farm of a Roman family, where rich husbandry was established. http://www.balaca.hu/tartalom/invitation
	17:00 – 20:00	Travelling back to Pécs, Hotel Laterum
	20:00 – 20:30	Arrival, check in to the hotel	Pécs
	20:30 – 21:30	Evening meal at Hotel Laterum
Saturday 12 th October	07:00 – 08:00	Breakfast. By 09:00 assembly in Great Auditorium of the Faculty for Cultural Sciences, Education and Regional Development (KPVK)	Hotel Laterum, Pécs
	08:00 – 08:30	Márton Jolánkai: Precision agriculture, agrochemicals and environmental sustainability. Present and future development trends.	Campus of KPVK, Pécs
	08:30 – 09:00	Tamás Kómvés: The potential of aquaponics in rural and urban development – environmental, economic and social implications
	09:00 – 09:30	Presentations by the group from Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Tarragona, Catalonia, Spain.
	09:30 – 10:00	Zoltán Alföldi: The role of human ecology in regional planning and stakeholder management
	10:00 – 10:15	Break
	10:15 – 10:45	Ádám Bartos: Hungarian horse breeding and horse-based tourism
	10:45 – 11:15	Thomas Huemer: Conservation of cultural heritage with particular emphasis on intangible heritage in Styria, Austria through ecomuseums or ecomuseum-like organizations.
	11:15 – 11:45	Gergely Babocsay: Nature conservation – case studies on snake populations.
	11:45 – 12:45	Lunch at Hotel Laterum
	12:45 – 13:30	Travelling to Szaporca
	13:30 – 17:45	Excursion with Zsolt Nemeskéri, Iván Zádori and Marietta Pohl: Visiting the Up-Dráva Visitor Centre of the Duna-Dráva National Park in the village of Szaporca. The national park was established along the Danube and Dráva rivers, covering an area of about 50.000 hectares. Typical habitats for pioneer vegetation. here is a great variety of habitats in the Dráva region of the National Park with some 4500 species of animals. – The built heritage of the area: church conservation. Development potential for organic agriculture and rural tourism. http://ddnp.nemzetipark.gov.hu/drava-kapu	Szaporca and the
	17:45 – 18:45	Travelling back to the hotel
18:45 – 19:45	Assembly in the conference room of the hotel. Reflections regarding the quality and usefulness of the programme. Questions and answers. Short press conference (invited media representatives)	Hotel Laterum, Pécs
19:45 – 22:00	Evening meal for everybody, “goodbye party”
	07:00 – 08:00	Breakfast
	08:00 – 12:00	Management meeting at the hotel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The status of the strategic partnership – networking, knowledge bank • The SUMCULA International Master programme • Other Intellectual Outputs • Final reporting - requirements 	Hotel Laterum, Pécs
	12:00 – 13:00	Lunch at the hotel
	13:00 -	End of the programme	